Murray Edwards College

Huntingdon Road
University of Cambridge
Cambridge
CB3 0DF
Tel: 01223 762100

The College was founded as 'New Hall' in 1954; six years after the University began awarding women degrees. They opened our doors to just 16 students in that first year, who resided in temporary accommodation while funds continued to be raised for a permanent home. This came in 1965, with the opening of their current buildings which were designed by Chamberlain, Powell and Bonn.

They adopted their current name 'Murray Edwards College' in 2008, following a donation of £30 million from former student Ros Smith (Mrs Edwards) and her husband Steve Edwards.

The name was chosen to recognise the generosity of the Edwards family and to honour their remarkable first College president Dame Rosemary Murray, who studied Chemistry at Oxford University and became one of the first women at Lady Margaret Hall to achieve a DPhil.

How to reach the college

The Paula Browne House is located between Murray Edwards College and Fitzwilliam College on Huntingdon Road, to the North West of Cambridge City centre.

If travelling by car (mark in red on the map), visitors should park in the car park at the rear of the College, off Storey's Way. Parking spaces are on a first come, first served basis. If coming from A1303 (Madingley Road) towards the City Centre. Turn to left into Storey's Way for Murray Edwards College Storey's Way car park. If using sat-nav, please use the post code CB3 0DR

If accessing by foot (mark in green on the map), the Porters' Lodge is accessed via Buckingham Road which is off Huntingdon Road.

Dinner Venue:

Dinner will be taking place at the Old Library in Sidney Sussex College, with welcome drinks served on the college gardens (weather permitting).

The Old Library
Sidney Sussex College,
 Sidney Street
 Cambridge
 CB2 3HU
 UK

The College is located in the historic heart of Cambridge. Sidney is one of the smaller Cambridge Colleges, and is renowned for its warm and welcoming atmosphere and friendly community. Proud of their long history (founded in 1596 – the youngest of the ‘old’ Cambridge Colleges), they are modern and inclusive in outlook.

There is not parking at the college, the main entrance is through Sidney Street directly opposite the supermarket Sainsbury's.

University Arms, Autograph Collection – 4* map A: Hotel 10

University Arms, Cambridge, re-created in 2018 by architect John Simpson and interior designer Martin Brudnizki, offers 192 rooms and suites, with views over Parker’s Piece, historic Regent Street, and the hotel’s inner courtyard. The style reflects classic Edwardian interiors with bespoke, leather-padded writing desks, low ottomans and rooms full of natural light. The result is ambitious, beautiful, and full of life. Occupying ground floor of University Arms, Cambridge, Parker’s Tavern is a quintessentially English brasserie. Chef Director Tristan Welch has designed every dish to be a whimsical re-imagining of a British classic, sourced from field, fen and seas. This is where you will find plates piled high with Norfolk fruits de mer, or in winter, suckling pig with wild mushrooms, and Tristan’s signature pie of the day. You can taste England on every plate.
